Alison Feigh, M.S.

Jacob Wetterling Resource Center Consultant

Alison Feigh
Community Safety
Specialist

Alison Feigh came to the JWRC initially in 2001 from the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children. Alison holds her M.S. in Criminal Justice and also holds a B.A. degree in Communication and “Responding to Missing Children in the US.” As a subject matter expert on the topic of child and teen safety, Alison has done extensive media interviews including CNN, Fox News and local news stations. Her positive, accessible personal safety messages are featured in her children’s books “On Those Runaway Days” and “I can Play it Safe.” Both titles were released nationally through Free Spirit Publishing in 2008.

As a classmate of Jacob Wetterling, Alison learned early on how important it is to protect our children and youth from exploitation. She believes strongly in avoiding fear-based approaches to empower children and teens walk around smart and not scared.

“Fantastic overview! I feel pro-active and not scared. Thanks.”- Parent

“This should be mandatory for all kids and parents.”-Parent

*“Alison Feigh did a wonderful job presenting the information. She works well with this age group. Love her no nonsense approach.”-
Teacher*

Please join the NELC on Tuesday, March 27th from 6:00-7:00pm in Steiner Hall for a high energy presentation that Alison is known for fed by her passion for working with children and youth. Childcare will be provided. Please let Nicole McGie know at nmcgie@nativity-mn.org if you are interested in attending.
